

PSFBC PRAYER REQUESTS

We have a prayer team who is faithfully praying for PSFBC and sharing prayer requests from our ministries. Please use this list throughout the month to pray for these items from PSFBC ministries.

Prayer Team:

We continue to deliver cookies to many of the first responders in the area, letting them know that we are praying and are thankful for them as they do their job serving our communities. Pray for our interactions with them and for whatever God leads us to pray specifically for next.

Trustees:

The next phase of the building project is getting approval from the State Fire Marshall. In the meantime, giving to the building fund has stalled. Pray for these topics as well as for a strong year-end giving to our general fund.

Nominating Committee

We continue to work on preparing nominations for ministry positions in the new year. Pray for each one who serves.

Deacons

As we serve our church through the deacon family ministry, let us all pray for those who continue to struggle with their health, finances, and relationships during this Christmas season.

Outreach:

December is the perfect time to reach out and invite others to church. Pray that we would all take the opportunity to bring family and friends to join us for all these wonderful events.

A Fast-Paced Study of the Gospel of Mark

From Christmas Sunday to Easter Sunday there are 16 weeks. In the Gospel of Mark there are 16 chapters. The first chapter of Mark is not too Christmasy, and the final chapter of Mark gives the least amount of coverage about Easter. Nevertheless, we'll follow this 16-week schedule as we study the life of our Lord and Savior from this early Gospel. Mark's writing is characterized by its quick pace as it follows the actions and teachings of Jesus from one point to another in short order. We will move quickly, too, with our study covering a full chapter each week. Plan to be here each Sunday for this study. We'll also supplement our Sunday sermons with further discussion each Wednesday night at the beginning of our prayer meeting.
